COMMITMENT

Attendance Policy: Your full attendance at the Fall retreat and kick-off session, and commencement, as well as full participation in the class is mandatory.

Monthly sessions are held at various locations throughout the Palouse region from October 2022 to May 2023. You are expected to attend all the monthly sessions.

Sessions for the 2022-2023 program year are as follows:

October 14 (Fall retreat) *
November 10
December 9
January 13
February 10
March 10
April 7
May 12 (Graduation) *

* denotes mandatory attendance

Social gatherings for the 2022-2023 will be planned by the class members themselves' and/or Leadership Moscow Steering Committee and attendance is encouraged.

EXPECTATION OF GRADUATES

Applicants to Leadership Moscow will be expected to become active participants in advancing the community and making a positive contribution to the Palouse region post-graduation.

Graduates will be responsible for planning as well as attending one of the following year's Leadership Moscow class sessions (Class of 2022-2023) determined after commencement.

Leadership Moscow graduates are expected to be active participants in the committees which make up the Alumni Association's programs and activities throughout the year.

If selected as a Leadership Moscow Program participant, I understand that I am committing myself to attending the eight monthly sessions (which includes Fall retreat and Graduation) and up to three after-hours social gatherings, which includes fully involving myself in the activities at each and participating fully in the class. Tuition is non-refundable. I also commit to involving myself in the community upon graduation from the Program and commit to a service-learning project as of the Leadership Moscow Program curriculum.
